Oxfam America videos: (Limit one of each video title)

- _____ NEW—Oxfam America: Saving Lives, Building Communities, Campaigning for Change (available 10/05)
- _____ Hunger in a World of Plenty (12 minutes, suitable for high school and older) Oxfam America sheds light on the connection between economic and social fairness and the crippling poverty that entraps millions of people.
- _____ Stop! Go Fast! (12 minutes, suitable for elementary school and older) This fast-paced video features Oxfam America supporters—from celebrities Danny Glover, Jason Priestly, and Alfred Woodard to former US Vice President Al Gore, musician/activist Richie Havens, and students of all ages—at Fast events across the country.
- _____ Cultivating Opportunity (25 minutes, suitable for junior high and older) Farmers in two vastly different worlds—Mozambique and the US—have devised similar solutions to hunger and poverty in their communities. Their successes offer hope for poor people worldwide.
- _____ Community (24 minutes, suitable for high school and older) This award-winning video tells the dramatic story of villagers in Bangladesh who have transformed themselves from beggars to business people while also addressing the issue of women's rights.
